Graduating Exercises

An audience that filled all the available space in the school auditorium witnessed the graduating exercises of the Pickens high school graduating class of 1916 Monday night. This class consists of nine girls and six boys, being the largest graduating class in the history of the Pickens school.

The following program was well rendered: Invocation by Rev. L. E. Wiggins; Class History by Miss Sallie Griffin; Essay by Miss Bessie Robertson; Oration by Vaughan Inabinet; Music by Miss Ina McFadden; Class Will by Miss Emma Herde; Class Prophecy by A. J. Boggs, Jr.; Valedictory by Charles Curtis; Class Song; Literary Address by Dr. W. S. Currell; Duet by Mrs. W. M. Melton and Miss Mildred Cox; Delivery of Certificates by Prof. R. T. Hallum; Presentation of U. D. C. prize by W. E. Findley, Esq. The U. D. C. prize is given each year by the Pickens chapter to the member of the high school classes who writes the best essay, and it was won this year by Miss Emma Herde.

The address of Dr. Currell, President of the University of South Carolina, was the feature of the evening and was greatly enjoyed by the large audience. It would be useless to try to give even a synopsis of the speech here as we could not do it justice. It was, however, full of meat and well seasoned with wit and we feel sure made a deep and good impression not only upon the members of the graduating class, but others as well.

Death of Good Old Lady

Monday morning the death angel came to the home of Miss Susan Trotter near Griffin church and carried this blessed soul to the better home above. "Aunt Susan" as she was familiarly called was about 94 years of age, and up to four years ago supported herself by her own work. When her strength failed the members of Griffin church and kind neighbors aided her. She was a good, conscientious christian woman and had been a member of Griffin church for a number of years. She is survived by one brother, George Trotter of Anderson county, and one sister, Mrs. Caroline Harbin, of the Griffin section. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. W. Hiott Tuesday morning at Griffin church where the burial took place.

Pickens Co. News 40 Years Ago

From The Sentinel, June 1, 1876.

Immigration Society.—A goodly number of the citizens of this place met in the court house last Saturday and organized an immigration society. The following gentlemen were chosen officers: President, D. F. Bradley; vice-presidents, T. W. Russell, J. R. Holcombe, J. J. Lewis, R. E. Steele, W. A. Lesley, B. F. Morgan, G. M. Lynch, John T. Lewis; secretary and treasurer, W. M. Hagood; executive committee, G. W. Taylor, J. H. Carlisle, I. H. Philpot, J. F. Folger, S. D. Keith.

James T. Bacon, Edgefield Advertiser; John S. Reynolds, Winnsboro News; A. M. Speights, Greenville News; D. F. Bradley, Pickens Sentinel; F. M. Trimmer, Carolina Spartan, and J. W. Brown, Charleston Journal of Commerce.

Dots From Ambler

May 29.—The farmers are all in fine spirits since the good rain of last week. Some are "gathering in the golden grain," while others are plowing and hoeing to be ready for theirs a little a little later on.

The Pickens Township Singing convention met at the school house here yesterday and did some splendid singing. The following leaders were present: S. P. Freeman, J. R. Connelly, T. H. Stewart, B. F. Hendricks, R. L. Henderson, L. P. Simmons, Mr. Clark, Oscar Baker, Ed Cisson and Claradine Chapman.

Rev. M. L. Jones of North Carolina is spending a while with his son, J. B. Jones. He has been sick for several weeks and thought it would be better for his health on this side of the Blue Ridge. Mr. Jones is very much attached to his friends over there and I daresay will go back before very long.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Simmons and son Lawrence spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Day. Among others who partook of their hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Day and son, Elford Clark and family and Rev. M. L. Jones.

Ma. and Mrs. Will Hendrix and daughter spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Monta Skelton.

Mrs. Charlotte Anthony, a former resident of this section but now of Greenville, is expected to live but a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brown and two children spent Sunday at the home of the latter's brother, Irvin Hayes.

Will Anthony is visiting his mother in Greenville.

W. E. Hendricks and Misses Ernestine Hendricks and Verona Mae Anthony and Ivy Hendricks and Bertran Anthony spent a couple of hours Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anthony in Greenville.

Mrs. Sallie Chapman spent a day last week with her daughter, Mrs. Elijah Hayes.

Several candidates attended the singing yesterday. Some were for county offices, but a goodly number were for matrimony. It has been said that it is not wise for two candidates to visit a place together, especially when they are running for different offices. T. H. Stewart can say amen to this, for he was left afoot (for a while) yesterday when another candidate drove off with a pretty girl in the buggy. X. Y. Z.

Pumpkintown "Deadhead" Stuff

Pumpkintown, May 29.—Well, dear readers, I am back again with some more "stuff". I have been wrestling with sickness, and haven't written anything in a long time, at least it has seemed long to me.

We were very, very thankful to see the rain which came last week, as things, including people's faces, were beginning to look rather gloomy here before it came.

Very little cotton in this section is up well enough to be worked, but it is coming since the rain, seed that has been planted since April. "General Green" is getting a foothold here, too, believe me. The dry weather hasn't injured our corn much, if any.

B. F. Hendricks has been sick with grip for the past week, but is much better at the time of this writing.

J. D. Crittenden has just recovered from an attack of grip. CEDRIC.

Pleasant Grove News

This section was visited by a good rain last Monday and Tuesday and the farmers are thankful to see it bring their cotton up.

Syd Moody was badly injured last week by a log falling on him while he was helping to load a wagon. Medical aid was at once summoned and he is getting along very well at this writing.

W. D. Hendricks, Jr., is on the sick list at this writing.

W. L. Green and son Charlie went to Greenville last week on business.

G. B. Fortner has a very sick child at this writing.

Leon White of Bristol, Tenn., paid his parents a short visit last Sunday, returning Monday morning. He is looking well and says he likes Tennessee fine. A FARMER.

Tries to Commit Suicide

Roy Jameson, eldest son of Mrs. A. S. Jameson of Easley, attempted to commit suicide Friday afternoon by taking poison. His purpose was immediately discovered and prompt medical aid saved his life. The young man has suffered from a mental derangement recently and is not accountable for his action.

Along Marietta Route 2

Farming is progressing very nicely in this section now.

Oscar Crenshaw who has been suffering with rheumatism is improving some at this writing. Dr. John M. Crenshaw is the attending physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Looper of Dacusville route 1, visited at the home of L. S. Edens last Sunday.

Mrs. Samuel Edens and daughter, Miss Della, of Easley, were visitors at the home of Mr. W. A. Edens last week.

Messrs. J. D. and C. C. McConnell made a business trip to Greenville last week.

Miss Sarah Attaway of Pickens, who has been on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. J. D. McConnell, returned to her home last week.

Miss Ella Belle McConnell, who has been attending school at Pickens, is at home now during vacation.

A new arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McWhite, a fine boy. All to the good, Roy. Uncle Sam may need an increase in the army some day.

Nannie May, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Edens, who has been quite sick, is much improved in health now. Dr. W. M. Ponder was the attending physician.

Commissioner Bowen is having the roads worked out in this section just now.

In consulting the candidate's column in The Sentinel we find a good crop, but room for several more. Come on out, boys, we voters will give you the proper thinning out sometime in August.

Well, since writing the above, the beautiful, refreshing showers have come which put a pleasant look on our old farmers. After all, nature always does her part, we only must do ours and all is well.

Only a few more days until the W. O. W.'s will begin to decorate the graves of the deceased sovereigns with the beautiful flowers of spring, as is the usual custom of this noble fraternal order and so mote it be. PROGRESSIVE.

Former Pickens Co. Boy Dead

On the evening of May 17 the death angel called from the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Williams their third son, L. Burt Williams. Burt was about 12 years old when he left this county with parents some nine years ago. His body was laid to rest in the Oak City cemetery in Bainbridge, Ga., the present home of his parents. He was a brother of Mrs. W. H. Field of this county.

Even though a boy when he left this county, he left many friends to deplore the sad news of his death. Burt had grown into manhood, characterized by deeds of honesty and love, and his departure brings sadness, the hope he indicated is sufficient to bring joy to those of his loved ones whom he beckoned to come on.

A Surprise Marriage

Married, by J. B. Newbery, N. P., at his residence, May 27, Miss Mary Henderson and Mr. Frank Herd, both of Pickens. The marriage was quite a surprise to the friends of the young couple. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Henderson of near Pickens, but she has been boarding in Pickens and attending the high school. Mr. Herd is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Herd of the Roanoke section and has made his home in Pickens several months, being employed by the Pickens Mercantile Co. They have the best wishes of many friends for a long and useful life.

Save Your Crimson Clover Seed

A week from now all the crimson clover will be all matured and farmers who have any should take steps at once to have a stripper made so they can save the seed. Farmers Bulletin No. 646 gives detailed information about making the stripper and gathering the seed. Those who wish to save the seed should write to the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and get a copy of this bulletin. It is free on request. Do not let any of the seed get lost, for the price of crimson clover will probably be high again next fall.

Dacusville Singing Convention

The Dacusville singing convention will meet in an all-day service at Nine Forks on the 1st Sunday in June. The regular preaching service will be at 11 o'clock. There will be dinner on the ground and the convention will meet in the afternoon. All singers and the public are invited to be with us.

JAS. A. ROBINSON, Pres.
